MEDIA AND SPEAKING BRIEF / WATERLOO, IOWA

Pastor Corey R.L. Holmes

Senior Pastor, Mount Moriah Love Center • Founder, L.O.V.E. Taskforce

When Waterloo neighbors stepped out of their homes to join a prayer walk, the conversation continued beyond that evening. Four days later, residents gathered at Mount Moriah to talk about their concerns and what they wanted to do together.

Introduction for hosts

Pastor Corey R.L. Holmes, known as Pastor Babyface, leads Mount Moriah Love Center in Waterloo, Iowa. A Clark Atlanta University graduate in psychology and religion, he served nearly a decade with the Atlanta Police Department. He is the visionary and founder of L.O.V.E. Taskforce, Leaders Opposing Violence Everywhere. He and its organizing members bring neighbors together to pray for peace, listen to families and serve their community.

Three reasons to invite Pastor Holmes

Preaching. A revival, church anniversary or chapel message that brings Scripture into the daily lives of listeners, including those carrying grief or uncertainty.

Faith and community leadership. A conversation for pastors or community leaders on what a church can do after a public prayer walk, starting with asking residents what they need.

Building relationships across divisions. A moderated conversation about making room for young people, neighbors, clergy and officers to speak honestly and hear one another.

Preaching and recent coverage

God Still Loves You A short excerpt from Pastor Holmes’s preaching in Waterloo.

KWWL at the November 19 Peace, Prayer & Unity Walk 42 seconds.

KWWL at the November 23 Taskforce meeting 1 minute, 18 seconds.

The Taskforce meets every fourth Monday, 6–7:30 p.m. Central. It has organized a November 30 prayer and cleanup walk with Iowa Heartland Habitat for Humanity and Church Row, and a January 16, 2027 family Madden and NBA 2K tournament with Cedar Valley Bridge to Hope.

Invite Pastor Holmes

mtmoriahwaterloo@gmail.com • 319-595-5960

For a service, interview or community conversation, send your organization, audience, topic, date, time zone and location or online format.

321 Normandy Street, Waterloo, IA 50703 • Sunday worship at 11:30 a.m. Central

Biography Press photographs YouTube channel